

Moran Hires Ryan Wright of Wichita to Staff

Washington, D.C. - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Ryan Wright of Wichita has been added to his staff. Wright will serve as Press Secretary in Moran's Washington, D.C. office.

"Ryan is an important addition to our staff, and I am pleased to have him working for the people of the First District," Moran said. "Ryan brings a high level of experience to the office, and his knowledge and work ethic will serve the people of Kansas well."

Wright is a 1996 graduate of Wichita High School Southeast and graduated with a degree in political science from Kansas State University in 2001. While at KSU, Wright was active within the political science department and participated in a political field study in the country of South Africa.

Prior to joining Moran's office, Wright served as Communications Director for Kansas State Treasurer Lynn Jenkins, CPA. Before joining Jenkins, Wright served as Legislative Director to former Speaker of the Kansas House Kent Glasscock.

"I am honored to work for Congressman Moran, a leader that I have always respected," Wright said. "The Congressman works very hard for the people of Kansas, and that level of dedication is addictive. I look forward to continuing this level of dedication through my work for the people of Kansas."

As press secretary, Wright will coordinate media activities to ensure that the people of the First District remain informed about issues at a local, state and national level.

Ryan is the son of Robert Wright and Cristi Wilson, both of Wichita.

###